We regret to inform you that we cannot accede to your request for the names of the respective officers. Based on paragraph 2.15 (privacy of the individual) of the Code on Access to Information, the names of the respective officers, which are a type of personal data, are collected by the Government for purposes related to staff management only. They should not be released to a third party other than for the said purposes. We also do not see any public interest associated with the disclosure of the information that would warrant our unilateral contravention of the above understanding.

As regards your request for the job titles of the interviewers in the selection interviews, we did not compile a list of post titles of the interviewers so such information does not exist. That said, you may wish to note that the panels comprised Administrative Officers ranking from Administrative Officer Staff Grade C (AOSGC) to Administrative Officer Staff Grade A1 (AOSGA1).

If considered necessary, you may request this Bureau to review the above decision or lodge a complaint to the Ombudsman.
